Volume 85, Number 8

Next Sunday, March 3rd – brother Steve McCarley will be unable to be with us for Sunday morning and evening worship and classes. He will be looking after his wife, Ms. Janet, following her scheduled surgery that is to take place this coming Thursday.

The elders have invited Darrick Shepherd to be our guest speaker for our time together on the Lord's Day. Darrick is the son of Carolyn and the late Bige Shepherd. Darrick is the preaching minister for the Una Church of Christ in Nashville, Tennessee. He has worked with the Una church since September 2022. Darrick has been married to his best friend Kathryn for 16 years. They have two children – Evan and Emersyn – who we see on occasion down SONshine Street when they have visited their grandparents..

Darrick will be sharing a lesson with the adult Bible class in the main auditorium from the book of James entitled "Breathing Fire" along with the sermon during our morning worship service entitled Living in God's Will. He will also teach the evening adult Bible class with a lesson from the book of Nehemiah.

We appreciate Darrick's willingness to come and help us in the absence of Steve. We know he will do a great job and we know his mother will also be glad to have him, and his family in town next Sunday.
